EQUITANA

The Mitavite Barrel Race at Equitana has received great feedback, with an amazing crowd and some good runs. Whilst the ground proved difficult, everyone handled themselves professionally and should be congratulated. Special thanks needs to go to Jodie Kilmartin for talking the crowd through a barrel run whilst riding her horse Tex, Jen Geddes and Neroli O’Neill for doing the divisional breakdowns, Darrell Edwards for judging, Jeanie Bachelor for setting the course, Phil Peters for chute bossing, Kyle Robertson for announcing, Sammy Rudd and Chloe Campbell for giving out brochures to the crowd and Patsie and Kerrie Holder for taking the entries. A special thank you goes to Mitavite who not only sponsored the event, but gave away gift bags to the crowd during the performance.

SARAH MORGAN

On the 17th of July, Queensland barrel racing saw a young, new name added to the title list, as Sarah Morgan became the 2011 Australian Barrel Horse Association (ABHA), QLD Classic Saddle Series champion upon her chestnut quarter horse, Lethal Whiskers.....More Info

ADELE EDWARDS

The name Edwards is no stranger to the Australian title list in the world of barrel racing, and in 2011 Adele Edwards showed just why she is considered the best in the business by taking home the 2011 Australian Barrel Horse Association, NSW Saddle Series champion title aboard her super fast horse Moon Roc. The NSW saddle series is an Australian Barrel Horse Association (ABHA) barrel race, which enables horses from the age of six and under to compete. The series is held over two months at 3 different locations – Dubbo, Tumut and Moonbi just outside of Tamworth..... More info
